

THE STORIES ADR PROFESSIONALS TELL

Challenges, Opportunities, and Tips and Techniques for Success

Practical Strategies for Success - Panel Discussion Series | September 26, October 24, November 30, 5:30pm – 6:30pm | 6 CEE Points

“You’re never going to kill storytelling...because it’s built in the human plan. We come with it.” — Margaret Atwood

Join us for this panel discussion series where highly experienced ADR Professionals will share stories about some of the most impactful challenges and opportunities that they’ve encountered on their journeys to building a thriving practice. Attendees will hear stories about managing difficult disputes and walk away with tangible tips and techniques for success in their own dispute resolution practice.

Participants will learn from a slate of expert dispute resolution practitioners, including mediators, arbitrators, and adjudicators, who deal with commercial, construction, family, workplace and many other disputes.
